
AUTHORS

Esteve Soler (Spain)

Esteve Soler is a playwright who trained at Barcelona's Institut del Teatre and at the Sala Beckett, where he gives classes on playwriting. Since 2008, the trilogy formed by his works

Titles

AGAINST DEMOCRACY

In seven short, unconnected and self-contained scenes,

AGAINST LOVE

7 short plays that mix terror and comedy, 7 moments that are both weird and recognizable, 7 surrealist and forceful visions on an emotion as inexcusable as it is manipulated, love, which presumably redeems our society of its great evils as it destabilises and fuels hypocrisy among everyone.

AGAINST PROGRESS

Seven moments as distant as they are close. Seven surrealist and striking visions of a progress that does not advance, a progress that despises us, the same progress as always.